

The Snow Image: A Childish Miracle

1109200077
洪綵嬪Sophia

1109200095
劉乙樺Emily

2023/12/06

Agenda

01

Author

02

Outline of the Story

03

Author's Conclusion

04

Why Is the Story

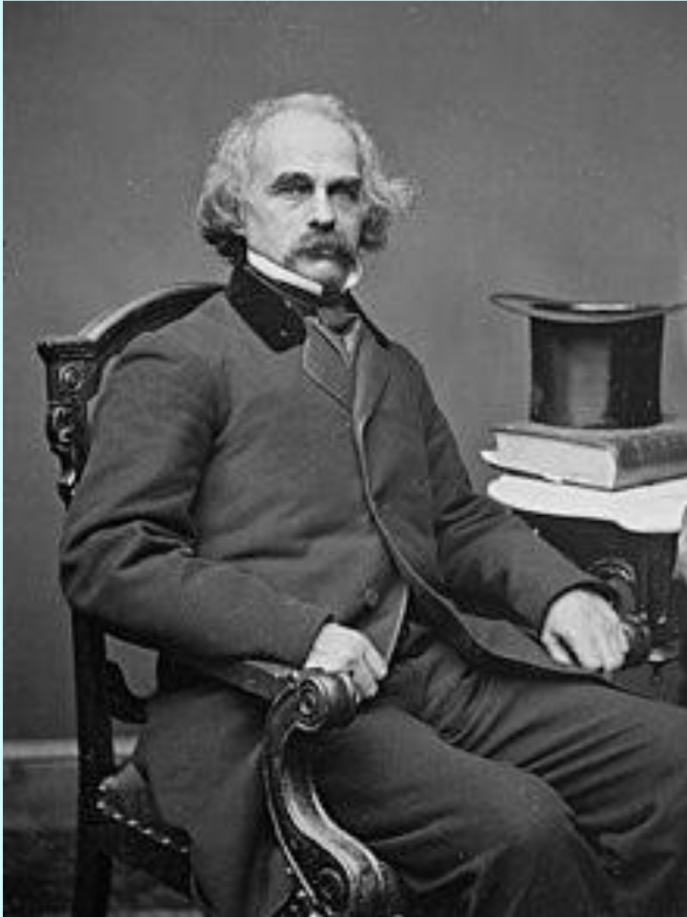

05

Difficulties that We Have Encountered

06

What Have We Learned

1. Author

Nathaniel Hawthorne

1. dark romanticism
2. guilt, sin, and evil are the qualities of humanity
3. inspired by Puritan New England
4. combining historical romance loaded with symbolism and deep psychological themes

2. Outline of the Story

(1) They build an image of snow

(2) They see the image as their snow-sister and playfellow

(3) The image comes to life

(4) The image vanishes, and only a pool of water remains

3. Author's Conclusion

The author concludes that “should some phenomenon of nature or providence transcend” the system of men of Lindsey's stamp, “they will not recognize it, even if it come to pass under their very noses.

What has been established as an element of good to one being may prove absolute mischief to another.”

4. Why Is the Story?

Core Value

Sense of Conflict

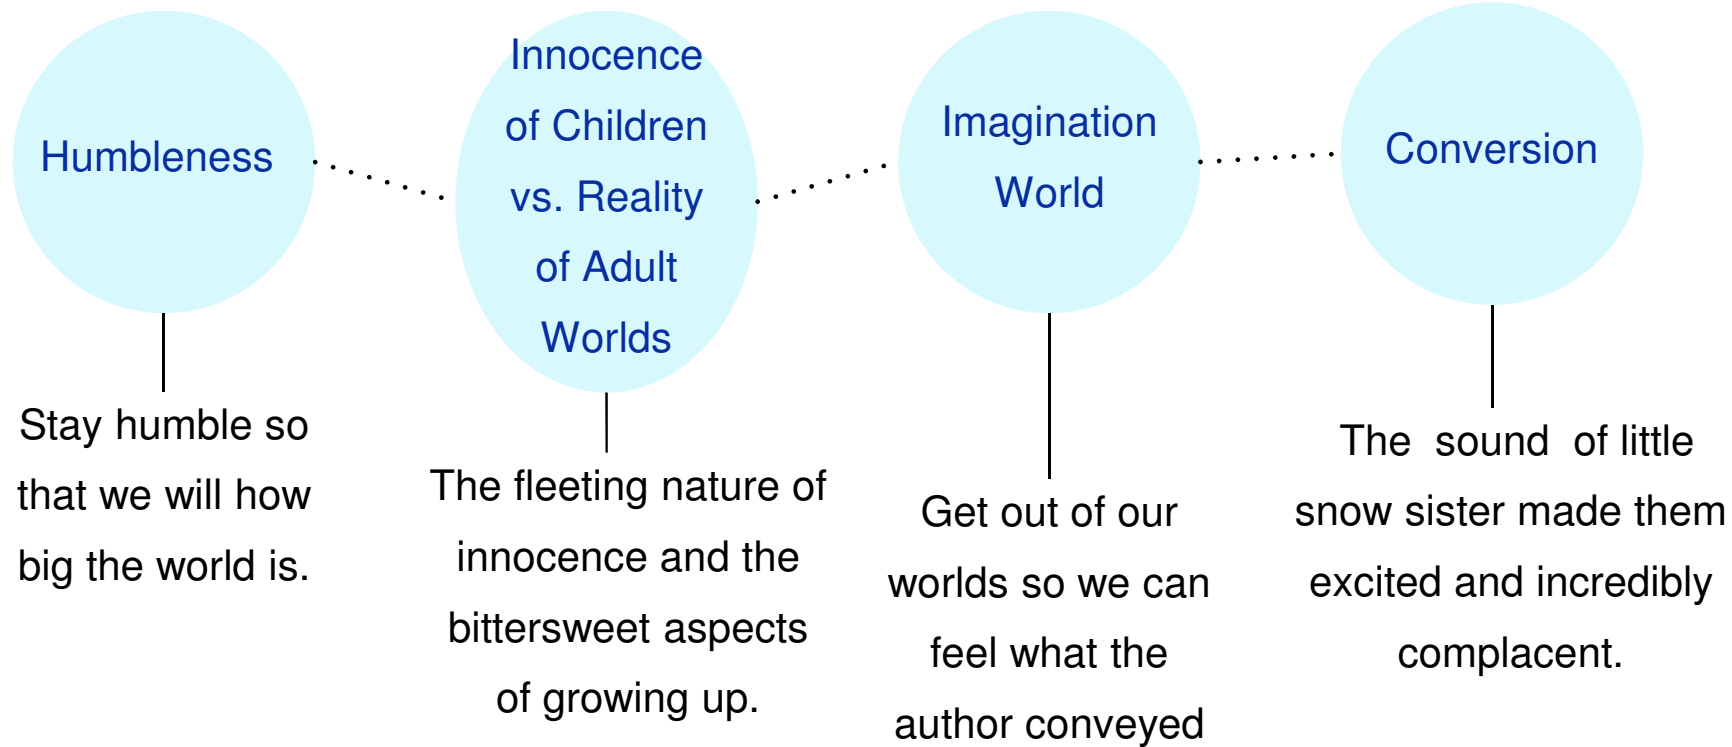

Symbolism

Resonance

5. The Difficulties We encountered

- Comprehension
 - Fidelity
 - Expressiveness
 - Elegance
-

6. What Have We Learned?

Thank You !